

Tejon promotes Daymude, Walker

The Tejon Ranch Company has announced the recent promotion of two of its employees to the position of vice president.

Andrew Daymude has been named vice president of Planning and Entitlements in the Real Estate Division of the company, and Carla Walker has been named vice president and controller of Tejon Ranch Company.

Daymude is responsible for land planning and environmental analysis of future conservation and development projects at the ranch.

He joined Tejon Ranch in 1999 from the Keith Companies – Inland Empire, where he served as vice president - Land Planning of the Moreno Valley operation for two years. From 1992 until 1997, he served as vice president of The Keith Companies-Hawaii, Inc., in Princeville, Hawaii.

He is a graduate of the University of Georgia where he earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture and urban design. He is a licensed and registered landscape architect and is a member of the American Society of Landscape Architects and the American Planning Association.

Daymude is a board member and treasurer for Shelter on the Hill – A Humane Society operating in Frazier Park and the treasurer for Calvary Chapel of Frazier Park.

Walker joined the company in 2001 as controller from a similar position at American Containment in Bakersfield. Prior to moving to Bakersfield, she worked at the London office of the Public Accountancy firm of Brown & Root and also held positions in the London and Houston offices of Deloitte Haskins & Sells.

Walker is a graduate of the University of Houston, where she earned her bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in accounting. She is also a Certified Public Accountant.

She serves on the Board of the Bakersfield Museum of Art and is a sustaining member of the Junior League of Bakersfield.